You can appoint nominees to receive membership benefits. The more staff members on your roster—both junior and senior—the better informed they will be and the more value your company will receive. Most meetings offer member discounted registration fees, so you will save money by including those individuals. To ensure full value of your corporate membership, any staff not on your roster who are identified as employees of your corporation when doing on-line web event registration will be automatically made members and receive benefits. Nominees receive their own subscription to National Defense magazine, can participate in division activities, and will enjoy discounts on meeting fees—all covered by corporate membership. Each individual receives a unique membership number, which should be used when registering at the member rate for meetings.

$15 per nominee of corporate dues is for a subscription to National Defense magazine.

Suggested staff to include: marketing, advertising, exhibitions, business development, market research, public relations; science and technology; senior management; human resources; research and development; Washington office. Be sure to include those likely to attend local chapter events (networking) and technical and policy symposia.

Annual membership dues are based on your organization's defense-related revenue. This includes both prime and subcontracts for products and services. To determine your dues, find the amount from the revenue column below that describes your organization.

For a quick calculation, visit www.ndia.org/dues.

Enter defense-related revenue for the most recent fiscal year (rounded to nearest dollar) $ _____

Revenue	Dues Calculation	Dues (rounded)
Up to $2.5 million	$500	= $ _____
Over $2.5 million	$$500 + [$100 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $2.5 \text{ million})]$	= $ _____
Over $5 million	$$750 + [$50 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $5 \text{ million})]$	= $ _____
Over $10 million	$$1,000 + [$25 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $10 \text{ million})]$	= $ _____
Over $50 million	$$2,000 + [$15 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $50 \text{ million})]$	= $ _____
Over $100 million	$$2,750 + [$10 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $100 \text{ million})]$	= $ _____
Over $1 billion	$$11,750 + [$5 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $1 \text{ billion})]$	= $ _____
Over $5 billion	$$31,750 + [$1 \times (\text{each million dollars revenue in excess of } $5,000\text{M})]$	= $ _____
Over $15 billion	$41,750	= $ _____

Example

Defense-related revenue is $4,900,000

$$500 + [$100 \times (4,900,000 - 2,500,000)]$

$$500 + [$100 \times (2,400,000 / 1,000,000)]$

$$500 + ($100 \times 2.4)$

$$500 + 240$

Dues = $740
